Candy Wall Guide

Something sweet for every occasion!

A look at the candies we can stock for your candy wall, with each brand, where it comes from, and the allergens we know about. This list is not exhaustive. We will do our best to source special requests, and everything is subject to availability. Premium candies are usually imported specialty brands, though some are high-end American brands.

About these allergens

We list what each maker declares on its ingredient list or allergen statement. The wall is self-serve with shared scoops, so cross-contact can happen between bins. We cannot guarantee a nut-free or allergen-free experience. If you or a guest has a serious allergy, tell your event contact before the event.
